Message from

Rev Brett Watterson,
 Rector of Dubbo.

A requiem eucharist will be held on Monday 21st June 2021 at 11am in Holy Trinity Church Dubbo to celebrate the life of Austin Jupp who passed away last week. Austin has been a very dedicated chairperson of the Brother Hood of the Good Shepherd until recent times. He established the BGS Heritage Centre in Dubbo and has been a faithful parishioner of Holy Trinity Dubbo. He will be greatly missed.

Ministry is for Everyone

Equipping and refreshing day on Saturday 31st July at

Orange Anglican Grammar School
 Christians from across Anglican churches in central and western NSW will gather for a wonderful day of fellowship and equipping.

Ministry really is for everyone and this is an opportunity to hone your skills or learn new ones and return to your parish inspired. Places have to be booked by Wednesday 21 July either online or by a form that can be sent to you by our parish secretary, Jenny Tunks—Cost is $30 per person.

THE PRAYERS

Loving Lord, we thank you for the reminder that Jesus alone is to be our leader, our message, our boast and our mission. Please save us as a church—and as a diocese—from being distracted by so many good things we could be doing, but which are not our core business.

Please help us in humility to recognise where we have become distracted and have lost our focus. Please help us to return to Jesus and him alone. May the message of the cross become that which excites us and drives us, so that our church—our diocese—our lives—are all about Jesus and his death and resurrection, for we ask it in His name.

Amen.

Lord we pray for those in need. We think of others in our parish who are struggling with illness or pain or grief or loneliness. May they trust you as their shepherd, be aware of your provision of green pastures, quiet waters and right paths, and know your presence in the darkest valleys.

In Jesus' name. Amen

We give thanks for the continuing recovery of Fr David Craig and pray that his health keeps on improving.

We ask all these things in the name of your Son, our Saviour, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen
